Construction Notes: This sweater is worked in one piece in the round from the the top down. It begins with the collar, and increases along the raglan lines shape the yoke. At armhole level, the sleeve stitches are set aside and the body is continued, with waist shaping, to the narrow rolled lower edge. The sleeves are worked from the reserved stitches down to the pointed cuffs, which are shaped with short rows integrated into the cable pattern. The cable and lace pattern is presented in chart form only.
