

Every Friday we feature one of the garments from the magazine in a post about styling. We suggest different ways to wear the garment in question using mock-ups from Polyvore. We encourage readers to tell us what they think about these outfits via our Facebook page or Twitter, and if folks want to make their own outfits, please tweet them at us with the hashtag #twiststyle. You can find all of the Style Friday posts here.

---

You guys must think that I am so fickle. Every week I tell you that I am smitten with whatever garment I'm showing you! The thing is that in coming up with styling options, I fall in love with all of them. Styling is all about discovering possibilities. It's exciting! This week is no exception. I love this sweater the moment I saw it. I love the balletic neckline, the wavy hems, and the graceful shape. This sweater is sweetness and romance.

I know it's a teeny bit early in the month for this, but I was thinking of asking Astra to be my valentine. At a distance, it seems pretty plain, which means it's versatile and easy to wear. The details are gorgeous too, and keep the knitting interesting. My favourites are the details up top- the welted neckline and cables at the raglan line. Look-

Yup, smitten is definitely the word. No matter your style, no matter your age, Astra can find a happy home in your wardrobe. Here are just a few of the ways I could see Astra being worn. Maybe they could be date outfits.

Those slightly strange lace boots could go with any one of those outfits, and I think they suit Astra's vibe perfectly. I gave some alternatives in case white lace heels aren't everyone's cup of tea. The blushing boots might be just about the cutest thing ever.

How about you? How would you wear Astra?