

To finish off the week, we have a big, fat, beautiful prize from the Oregon Woodworker.

It's a Mama Bear™ PLUS Handcrafted Yarn Swift™ and we're throwing in a Twist Collective pattern of your choice. Due to the size and weight of the swift, this prize can only be sent to US and Canadian addresses. We're sorry about this, but don't worry, there will be more worldwide prizes up for grabs next week!

In order to enter, write us a haiku including the word "swift" in the ravelry thread about this prize!
Deadline is the end of today (Friday).
