

Knitting books are awesome. There is something about eye-candy you can hold in your hand, and they often have helpful notes on technique, not to mention the patterns!

I use them the same way I use cookbooks; I don't use the recipes exactly, but I use their ideas, take bits and pieces away to sprinkle on other things. Imagine the sorts of inspirational sprinkles you could add to your knitting with some of these in your arsenal!!

Quayside Publishing is giving away four fabulous knitting books, and each of the four winners will also receive a free Twist Collective pattern of their choosing.

(The Knitter's Palette by Kate Haxell, Icelandic Handknits: 25 Heirloom Techniques and Projects by Hélène Magnússon, Swedish Handknits: A Collection of Heirloom Designs by Sue Flanders and Janine Kosel, Knitting Clothes Kids Love by Kate Oates and Nancy Langdon)

Because of shipping restrictions, this giveaway is only open to knitters in the US and Canada. To enter, share a photo of your favorite reading spot on on today's Facebook thread, the Quayside Giveaway discussion on Ravelry, or by tweeting it .@twistcollective (don't forget the dot). We can't wait to see the cozy spots you escape to with a good book. Enter by the end of the day for a chance at these great prizes!
