

Or the winter issue is, at least. It's a good time to get going on some new knits so you can be nice and toasty when the cold arrives in your neck of the woods!

