

In case you haven't heard, the fall issue is live and waiting to inspire. I speak for all of us here at Twist when I say thank you to everyone for your continued interest, and especially to our customers, thank you for your support. It is your purchases that have brought us around to the one year mark, and that encourage us to continue on into another year. Pattern sales are your vote of confidence, and as our thanks, we'd like to offer you a little gift.

As newsletter subscribers already know, we are running a contest for the month of August. For every purchase you make from the Twist shop, be it for new patterns or old, tape measures or bags, we will enter your name into a drawing for a collection of prizes to be awarded at the end of the month. We're giving away free patterns, books, notions, and yarn to a bunch of lucky customers. Multiple purchases means multiple chances, even if you make them all in one transaction. So pick up some of those patterns you have sitting in your queue, get knitting, and maybe even get some free stuff. A prize list will be posted soon, and winners will be notified by email in early September.
