

Laylock is a young British knitter who keeps a delicious blog. I admire her eye, and her photography, and also her generosity.

She has made a pdf free for download to anyone who happens across her site, full of sweet graphics for gift tags, bookmarks, skein wraps, and such, all of them perfect for knitters and the knit worthy.

Do take a look for yourself, and click around her site for her inspiring perspective on the wooly life.
