

In case you missed April 1st, the new Spring/Summer issue is live and waiting in the usual place. And yes, you read that right: spring and summer are combined this time around, which means that there are loads of great projects to keep your needles busy until fall. Happy knitting!

